

You are invited to participate in the Cable Natural History Museum “Bee Inspired” Art Show

May 24 – August 24, 2019

During the summer of 2019, the Cable Natural History Museum (CNHM) will host an art show titled “Bee Inspired.” The objective is to support area artists and highlight our exhibits featuring native bees and pollinators.

“Bee Inspired” to create a drawing, painting, stained glass or other two dimensional piece that represents native northwestern Wisconsin bees, other pollinators such as hummingbirds or butterflies, or their floral habitat. Please note that honeybees are not native!

Guidelines and Procedures:

- 2D piece of any medium with a focus on pollinators in nature or pollinator habitat landscapes
- Original work only
- Artists eighteen years of age or older may submit one piece, not to exceed 24” x 24” including frame, or two smaller pieces, not to exceed 11” x 14” each including frame.
- All art must be general public appropriate, professionally presented, and compatible with a professional hanging system.
- Artists will receive 65% of the sale price if work sells, and the remaining 35% will benefit the Museum. Payment will be made when a piece sells, and you can then choose to submit another piece of similar size.
- The Museum reserves the right to decline pieces.

Timeline and Important Dates:

- April 15 - Inform the CNHM by e-mail that you intend to submit a piece for the show info@cablemuseum.org or phone 715-798-3890
